KIDS JUST WANNA HAVE FUN!

Join us this summer for some exciting, educational, awesome experiences!!

Each session will have its own fun theme with a special visitor and activities and projects based upon that theme. Activities include but are not limited to: arts and crafts, cooking, baking, games, outdoor play and more!

This summer's themes are:

Week I -Furry Friends

We will have a special visitor bring some furry friends for a "show & tell" one day this week! We will make a yummy project in our kitchen, Monkey Bread!

June 22, 23, & 25

Week II - Rescue Hero Week

We will tour the Police Station, and RescueSquad and have a visit from the Fire Dept. We will make some patriotic crafts too!

June 29, 30, & July 2

Week III - Smoke & Bubbles

Our Mad Scientist will bring his secret laboratory to conduct experiments with us. We will also have some outdoor bubble projects this week—weather permitting!

July 6, 7, & 9

Week IV - Fun on the Farm

Saddle up for fun! We will have a company called "PonyShare" come visit us - with REAL ponies - to teach us a variety of things such as safety, grooming, basic anatomy. Of course we will get to ride the pony!

July 13, 14 & 16

Happy Camper Club Staff

Program Coordinator & Instructor

Christine DiNizo

Christine is a certified physical education and health teacher. She has enjoyed working with children in Middlesex for the past 18 years as a coach, PTO volunteer, and officer. Christine is the mother of two children ages 18 and 16 who participated in the Happy Campers Program as pre-schoolers. Since her children enjoyed their Happy Campers experience, she looks forward to providing your children a fun and educational experience this summer!

Program Instructor

Carolyn Clifford

Carolyn has worked as a pre-kindergarten teacher's assistant over the last fifteen years. She was also a sales manager at a children's gift store. Carolyn is the mother of two children; Christopher and Caitlin. She is fluent in sign language. Carolyn has enjoyed working with children in Playgroup, Toddler Fun Time and Kid Quest. She is excited to spend the summer with your children!
